

Happy New Year 😊

Today is the official start of the Chinese new year, for the last 2 years we've been celebrating as its been the year of the dragon followed by the year of the snake. So ending the Chinese year with the flying snake story yesterday was apt.

Today starts the year of the horse, so we leave our herptile friends behind for another 10 years until the next year of the Dragon.

For those of you who didn't have a chance to see our Dragon of the month, and Year of the Snake croaks when they ran in 2012 and 2013 – you can find them here: <http://froglife-frogbites.blogspot.co.uk/>

As a way of celebrating the end of the past two years, why not take a few minutes to take part in our Scale of the Problem survey here:

<http://www.froglife.org/what-we-do/inspiring-people/the-scale-of-the-problem/> and enter the free prize draw for a chance to win a great New Years Present for yourself!

Happy Chinese New Year.
