Wildlife conservation charity Froglife currently have a full time, paid traineeship available for a period of 12 months. The trainee will be part of the Come Forth for Wildlife project team, which consists of a Project Manager and Project Assistant.

This is an exciting and varied project operating across the Forth Valley, and includes a variety of practical conservation, public engagement and education activities. This traineeship is designed to help the trainee gain the first step into a career in the conservation sector.

Throughout their time with Froglife the trainee will identify and work on personal career goals supported by work shadowing, informal and formal training and supported study.

The trainee will be involved in all aspects of the Come Forth for Wildlife project.

Come Forth for Wildlife Trainee

Full Time: 35 hours per week

Location: Froglife's Office in Grangemouth

Contract: 12 months (November 2020 – November 2021)

Salary: £6.45-£8.72 ph (depending on age)

Hours: 35 hours per week (flexibility will be required with occasional weekend and evening work)

The Come Forth for Wildlife project works throughout the Forth Valley (Falkirk, Stirling and Clackmannanshire) to develop connections to conserve and enhance the unique heritage the area offers. This is being achieved by creating inter-connected habitats for amphibians, reptiles and other wildlife. The project enables all sectors of the community to develop connections with the natural heritage of the Forth Valley region through the activities we are delivering. Work is funded by The National Lottery Heritage Fund and a range of co-funders. Full details of the project can be seen at www.froglife.org/what-we-do/education/come-forth-for-wildlife/
