

Job Description and Person Specification

Position: Project Manager – Leaping Forward for Dementia (London)

Reporting to: Operations Manager (Small Projects)

Duration: Fixed term contract until June 2025.

Salary: £30,000 per annum with potential annual inflation increases based on CPI rates.

Hours: 35 hours per week – flexi-time, core hours 8-10am to 4-6pm.

Location: Working from home with frequent travel around South London.

Froglife is a national wildlife conservation charity that specialises in the conservation of amphibians, reptiles and their habitats. We believe that the long-term success of conservation efforts can only be maximised through the inclusion of people from wide ranging backgrounds, and one of Froglife’s defining features is our commitment to involving people in every aspect of our work.

Leaping Forward for Dementia aims to enable people living with dementia in London to get involved with nature conservation work. This enhances lives through improved confidence, transferable conservation skills and emotional, social and physical wellbeing.

Froglife has a growing level of expertise in this field, with successful projects ongoing in Glasgow and Somerset. The post holder will be responsible for continuing and expanding this exciting work for the people and wildlife of London.

This project will be adaptive and dynamic and will take into account Covid-19 guidelines. We are currently running this project in Lambeth and will expand to other deprived London Boroughs. We welcome applications from applicants who can travel in a way that is sustainable, such as walking and cycling. We are open to applications from all candidates, including those from under-represented backgrounds. Froglife is an equal opportunities employer.

Job Description

Principle duties and responsibilities:

- Consult and build relationships with people living with dementia and their carers.
- Plan, deliver and evaluate three elements of the project:
 - Wildlife Gardening Workshops: People living with dementia, carers and others. Plus workshops just for carers and social workers. Venues will include dementia cafes, care homes and other venues where people living with dementia congregate. These workshops will include young people attending to capture wildlife memories and experiences from the participants.
 - Wildlife Gardening Practical Sessions: People living with dementia – we already work closely with numerous community gardens, parks and allotments in London and these will be the venue for these sessions.
 - Wildlife Routes: Offering people living with dementia and their carers a range of professional training packages to pursue higher level wildlife interests, delivered by Froglife's wider team and by consultants Froglife currently work with.
- Use the Froglife curriculum to ensure sessions are packed with conservation messages, helping participants to appreciate amphibians and reptiles and enjoy the outdoors.
- Involve participants in improving their local green spaces for people and for wildlife, making sessions interactive, positive and engaging.
- Ensure that sessions follow government guidelines around Covid-19, while building confidence for people to access outdoor spaces safely.
- Build relationships and liaise with referral agencies, community centre managers, green space managers and funders to ensure activities meet the needs of all stakeholders and ensure that those in need of the project are able to access sessions.
- Recruit and support volunteers to help with the delivery of the project.
- Ensure that project targets are met, reporting back to donors and trustees through regular reports.
- Manage the equipment and travel budgets.
- Keep good records and maintain good standards of monitoring and evaluation
- Ensure that the project is widely promoted and obtains good press and social media coverage, making sure funders and partners are recognised in the publicity.
- Any other duties relevant to the project.

Other duties

- To contribute to the wider work of Froglife as required by senior management.
- To encourage and maintain professional standards
- To act as a responsible ambassador for Froglife
